

Workshop: How to be a good Chief Investigator

17th January 2018 10am-4pm Liverpool

A free one day training event for newly funded Chief Investigators of randomised clinical trials.

The workshop will include presentations from chief investigators, clinical trial units, trial funders and trial methodologists.

This workshop is free to shortlisted applicants, but spaces are limited and available on a first come first served basis. Delegates must pay for their own travel and any accommodation.

To apply: Please forward a 2-page CV and a copy of the trial abstract including the title and funder of your trial. Applicants should be a new CI on a randomised clinical trial which is already currently funded.

For all applications and enquiries please email Gill Cooper, HTMR Network Coordinator (gdcooper@liverpool.ac.uk) with the subject heading: "Good CI Workshop 4".

Deadline for applications: 19th December 12 Noon

Feedback from previous courses:

Excellent to hear others' experience - that has given me confidence with my own project

Overall a very good experience and really useful

The quality of speakers was overall super and I am very grateful to have been allowed to attend

The talks were interesting as they confirmed some of the challenges that new CIs face.

Organising Panel: Prof Tony Marson, Prof Paula Williamson, Prof Jane Blazeby & Prof Jane Armitage.

This workshop is funded by the MRC Network of Hubs for Trials Methodology Research
